News asserting that “our Company and/or Hurriyet Newspaper is sold” as circulated in some press and media organs at the weekend does not reflect the truth. Neither there has been a Board of Directors’ resolution taken in this respect nor any study has been conducted to realize it.

On the other hand, news asserting that Vuslat Sabancı has resigned as the Board Chairman, as circulated in some press and media organs at the weekend does not also reflect the truth. The truth is as follows: The Board of Directors as assigned during the Ordinary General Meeting held on March 30, 2017 has not yet made distribution of assignments and upon distribution of assignments Vuslat Sabancı will continued to be assigned as a “Board Member” in our Board of Directors.
